

30 WAR SAVINGS SOCIETIES TO BE FORMED IN NEAR FUTURE

Opening Gun of Enlistment Campaign Fired at Rousing Meeting Sunday Evening

The opening gun of a campaign to enroll every man, woman and child in Santa Ana in government-fostered War Savings societies was fired Sunday evening at Birch Park, when a rousing meeting was held, enlivened by several beautiful selections by the Coast Artillery band from San Pedro and vocal numbers, including solos by Daisy Morgan Austin, soprano, and A. Herold de Grosse, baritone, of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company of Chicago. These numbers were thoroughly appreciated. Both soloists were accompanied by May Brooke.

War Savings was the topic of the meeting, and it was pointed out that this does not simply mean the saving of money and putting it into War Savings Stamps, but rather it means economic savings, whereby those at home do without things that are needed by the fighting forces to win the war.

Many Societies Planned
The plans for Orange County include the formation within the next few weeks of a War Saving society in each voting precinct. This would make thirty initial societies in Santa Ana. Later as the movement spreads other societies will be formed and precincts divided as needed. There are no dues and no membership fees in these societies.

The first step in formation of the societies is securing of pledged membership. The method by which these pledges shall be secured will be determined by the various city committees in the county. Several of the towns will secure the War Savings society pledges during the solicitation of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign, and the formation of the clubs will follow soon afterwards. Others may decide upon a separate canvass for club memberships. The plan to be used in Santa Ana has not yet been announced. No pledges for money will be asked when the pledge is signed.

Record Attendance
One of the largest gatherings ever assembled in Birch Park greeted the speakers and artists who came Sunday evening to help start the War Savings society campaign. The speakers, singers, and band members were thoroughly appreciative of the dinner at the armory at 6:30 Sunday evening when they were entertained by the Girls' War Service League, and this appreciation was splendidly expressed. The park meeting was called to order by John A. McFadden, county war savings chairman, who introduced the speakers, and was opened with prayer by Rev. A. T. O'Rear.

Judge Hugh N. Wells, the first speaker, opened his address by likening Orange county to the Garden of Eden.

Means Economic Saving
"War Savings means the saving of necessary materials," said Judge Wells, "not just saving money to buy stamps. No person is so poor that he cannot save materials to help win the war, and the least of us can save just as much as the richest man in the land."

Democracy, said the speaker, is not just a form of government—it is a great ideal, an opportunity for service born of sacrifice, it is a religion. So long as any one in the world is not free the world is not free, and any one in slavery is a menace to freedom—that is why America is fighting to free the world. He lauded the people of England, saying that in every high crisis England has defended the right.

"God is the ally of our ideal," said Judge Wells, "and before the crisis is over we'll get right with God—be sure of that."

No person now has any business with "ready money," declared the speaker, for everyone should give everything they can to help win freedom for all.

Don't Forget Outrages
When the time comes to talk peace, don't forget the outrages which Germany has perpetrated on the civilized world, was the message of Thomas A. Berkebile. He said it is a holy war upon which we are engaged, just as holy as any that was ever fought. In reviewing the start of the conflict whereby Germany planned to rule the world by deliberate military conquest, he said it was interesting to note that Germany declared war on Russia, and immediately started her armies toward France, through Belgium.

"We must not forget the crimes of Germany," said Berkebile. "We must lay the foundation for a clean citizenship and mete out due treatment to those who do not respect our institutions. For those who would betray us our gates should swing out and remain forever closed. No spirit of sacrifice is too great for it is all for our government. The more we do and the more we sacrifice, the more we love those things that we sacrifice for."

One great thing to do is to combat the insidious propaganda which will be turned loose in an enemy peace campaign. Stand fast against it. In time you will be asked to join War Savings clubs. The government hopes all will join.

No matter what temporary turn the war may take, he said, always remember that nothing is settled until it is settled right.

The War Savings meetings were held Sunday afternoon at Balboa and Huntington Beach, and in the evening at Anaheim, the speakers and musicians progressing from one meeting to the other.

CUBS ARE FAVORITES IN THE WORLD SERIES

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—There were few shadows over the Chicago Cubs today when they journeyed to Comiskey park for the time-honored ceremonial of studying the lights and shadows of a strange field.

The Cubs, ready for the beginning of the World's Series with the Boston Red Sox here tomorrow, were billed for a two-hour workout. The Bostonians, of course, are accustomed to the field, having played various series there this summer.

With fair weather it was believed the stands would be packed during the series opening tomorrow. Enough seats have been sold outright to fill the Cubs' own park but there were still empty spaces in the American League establishment. An innovation for the World's Series was the placing on sale today of reserved seats for individual games.

The Cubs are strong favorites in Chicago. Cub fans figure the pitching staffs are equal and that their team has a much stronger offensive. Jim Vaughn, left-handed, is picked generally to open the fray.

$2500 WORTH OF FUN FOR $250 REAL CASH

Twenty-five hundred dollars worth of fun to get $250 in real cash—this is what Sam Stein and his cohorts in the first annual picnic of the merchants of Santa Ana are arranging for on Admission Day.

The Committees in charge of the picnic did not stop at expense in providing entertainment for the several hundred people who attended the picnic—and they are $250 in the "hole."

Baseball—both the real kind and indoor—are the vehicles that will carry the plan to bring $250 into the coffers of the committee. They need the money as just obligations are standing against them and they don't like to go back to the merchants and ask them to make up the deficiency, as they were liberal in the first call for finances.

Bankers and merchants will put up the real baseball game—and from the manner in which some of the players in both activities of business life slipped the ball around through the field, and the way they ran bases, at the County Park, there is plenty of room to say that the game will be a real one. The captains of the two teams are being kept in the dark, but it is said that a number of the players have been picked—the purpose of such action is not clear, unless it is, as has been hinted, that the committee is going to select the players and appoint the captains and tell them there's their material and it is up to them to organize and develop their teams.

And when the bankers and merchants have finished cracking each other's necks—and then, well it is going to be girls in bloomers romping on the diamond—and the girls will have one of "them things" they call indoor baseballs, something they can see passing through the air when it is thrown at them, to chase around the sand lot after. And the teams—they will be selected from among the girl clerks on the north and south sides of Fourth street. It will be a revival of civil war times—the north against the south, or the south against the north, whichever way one prefers to put it. And the authority for the statement that it is going to be a great game is none other than Sam Stein—and he has some backing to whatever he says.

The bankers and merchants will start their fracas about 4:30 in the afternoon of next Monday, and they are expected to get themselves out of the way in time to give the girls an opportunity to complete their five innings before a suspension of hostilities is called because of darkness.

Merchants of the city will be asked to close their places of business at 4 o'clock and remain closed the balance of the day.

And preceding the day on which the grand "finally" to the merchants picnic will be staged, the committee will inaugurate a campaign in which bevy of pretty women will assault the public and raid trenches in the placing of "pasteboards" that will give the holders thereof the privilege of "vizzing" the "greatest show on earth."

The War Brides, Chatt 'N' Seau and the War Service League girls will have the tickets to sell, and they will start on their work Thursday morning. The tickets will sell for 25 cents, and special efforts will be made to induce the clerks of the city to buy the tickets and thus assist in making up a shortage that was caused in efforts to show them a good time on Aug. 21st, last past—passed, but not forgotten, and never to be forgotten.

10,000 GERMANS MADE CAPTIVE IN FIGHTING YESTERDAY

All Fighting Continues Favorable to Allies, Reports From Front Show

BY LOWELL MELLETT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Sept. 3.—Fighting all along the Drocourt-Queant line continued favorable to the British today, according to all reports received at headquarters.

The British are progressing south-east of Cagnicourt. They are astride the railway west of Queant and east of Reims. The enemy is offering mediocre resistance west and north of Queant.

In the northern part of the battle line American troops are sitting in trenches on both sides of Ypres. Signs are everywhere visible in that region that the Germans in the north are preparing to make the best of a situation that is rapidly growing worse. Fires were observed last night at Armentieres, Worenton and smaller towns in Flanders, lighting up the eastern sky.

Ten thousand Germans were taken prisoner during yesterday's fighting, beside many wounded.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Sept. 2. (Night).—Thousands of German prisoners swarming down the roads like sheep and crowding each other into the ditches along the sides this afternoon told the story of Hindenburg's effort to hold the famous line below the Scarpe against the driving attack of the British.

The Germans were running before the British like raw recruits and reforming afterward only when masses of their own men came up to support them. Germans screaming from fear, dashing from the front lines, Germans leaping out of their dugouts and throwing up their hands in surrender with the first appearance of the Canadians, were scenes witnessed early in the British attack.

Along the road paralleling the Scarpe a party of correspondents at noon met such masses of disheartened captives as have been seldom seen since the beginning of the great war.

When questioned, prisoners frankly expressed their belief that Germany is beaten.

"The war is over," said one.

"You mean that we win?" he was asked.

"Yes," he replied, "but we don't care. We want only peace."

Another asked if the British people are hungry and when told that they are not, replied:

"That is America's work."

Regarding the work of the German submarines he said:

"Untersee boten capu," meaning the submarines are done for.

This does not mean simply that today's battle was a triumph for the British. On the contrary, some of the heaviest fighting in months occurred before the important stretch of the Hindenburg line in this vicinity was crossed.

The Germans threw in great masses of reserves in some parts of their lines. These masses included worn-out divisions who had fought so hard at Bapaume and Bullecourt.

Great enemy masses are still coming up and a great battle must yet be fought but none here doubts the ultimate result.

The British success in overcoming deep enemy wire barriers was due to the use of instantaneous fuse shells and tanks.

EGG-A-DAY IS RECORD OF YOUNG POMONA HEN

POMONA, Sept. 3.—Fred Holcomb of 544 West Seventh street has a little Ancona hen that laid an egg every day from December 1 to July 30, and at the present time is doing better than one egg every other day.

Poultry experts in this valley doubt if there is a hen in the United States that is making a better record.

Holcomb had six Ancona pullets and a rooster. He sold the pullets, but when the new owner came to get them he took the rooster instead of one of the pullets. That was in November, and Holcomb has kept a careful record of the eggs laid by the pullet ever since.

The newly-organized Red Cross canteen at Fullerton realized its value in war work when it was called upon to serve a set dinner in short order for 128 soldiers on their way from Camp Kearny to the Atlantic seaboard. The canteen has been organized for this special purpose, as it was realized that something of the kind should be done for the hundreds of soldiers who transfer there for eastern points, and it will be the aim of the Fullerton canteen to see that none of the boys go away hungry.

Just as he was nearing the finish line in the great handicap road bicycle race at Workman and Broadway, Los Angeles, George Gerwing, speeding rider among the 300 entrants, struck an automobile which had intruded on the course and stalled. Luckily it was a cut-down roadster, and as his bicycle crumpled, the rider was catapulted over the machine. He immediately arose and tried to reach the finish line, but couldn't make it. Examination showed he had sustained only severe bruises.

Robert Gerwing, who was riding near his brother, was the only other scratch man in the race, and he finished in first time and sixth place, making the course in 51 minutes and 7 seconds.

WOMAN GIVES BAIL; MAN GOES TO JAIL

This morning when Isabel Flores, Mexican woman, and Adelbert V. Rodriguez, Mexican, were before Justice Cox on charges of selling liquor illegally in the fifth supervisory district, September 24 at 2 p. m. was set as the time for their preliminary examination. Justice Cox fixed the bail of each at $300. The woman immediately turned over $300 cash as her bail. The man was not provided with $300, and he was sent back to jail. This couple is charged with peddling liquor among Mexican laborers around Tustin and Santa Ana.

STRANGE WATERMELON TALE IS TOLD TO COX

When Jose Garcia was before Justice Cox today on a charge of stealing watermelons from Eugene Griset's ranch, Garcia pleaded not guilty, and he forthwith told a tale of how it came that he was mixed up in the affair. He was driving along a road not thinking at all of watermelons when two strangers, Mexicans, asked him for a ride, and he let them ride. Soon they told him to stop his horse and stopped right there in the road. The two Mexicans brought about a dozen watermelons and put them in his wagon and were still quite busy when along came Griset and grabbed him, while the two real watermelon thieves got away. Garcia's trial was set for 10 a. m., September 19.

BIG FAREWELL TO LIBERTY BOYS WEDNESDAY EVENING

Band Music and Speaking Will Feature Good-bye Meeting

Forty-four Liberty boys will say farewell to Santa Ana Thursday morning until such time as they may have opportunity to return home from training camps for a visit, and tomorrow night their friends and relatives and the whole community will participate in an official farewell to them when "godspeed" wishes may be tendered in full by the public.

The farewell will start tomorrow evening with a banquet to them at Elks' hall, starting at 6 o'clock. J. C. Wallace, who is in charge of the dinner end of the program of the evening, advises that families and relatives of the boys who want to attend the banquet should not fail to make reservations at the office of Sheriff Jackson. The large number of boys going will increase the number of people who will want to attend the banquet, and because of this some of the families may find themselves without a plate at the table unless they take the precaution to make the reservation.

The public exercises will take place at Birch park after the dinner. The program there will start at 7:15, and members of the Elks' band are requested to be at the park at 7:15.

Clyde Bishop will be one of the speakers, and there will be a patriotic address by some outside speaker, whose name has not yet been secured.

An officer will be here from Camp Kearny to talk direct to the boys going into the service. J. C. Wallace was at Camp Kearny Saturday, where he saw Captain Mingen, adjutant in charge of the camp, who said that he would co-operate in full in the movement, and would see that a good speaker was sent here. He gave his warmest commendation of the public enterprise of Santa Ana in giving departing contingents farewells.

R. L. Bisby, chairman of the Fourth Liberty Loan committee, will preside at the meeting.

Everybody who doesn't know the "Star-Spangled Banner" by heart is requested to learn it between now and tomorrow night, as it will be sung at the close of the exercises, and the county chairman wants to send the boys away with that grand old song ringing in their ears as they never heard it before in Santa Ana.

The boys are going away to fight the battle of everyone who stays at home, and it is hoped that every person in Santa Ana will show the boys that the people at home are back of them, and in full accord, by making the gathering one of the largest ever held in the city.

Every boy in uniform—whether army or navy—is invited to the exercises.

THREATS WITH CAR BRINGS AN ARREST

L. Tillsion of Newport Beach, employed by Joseph Ferguson, is to answer in court on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon upon W. Symondson. The deadly weapon referred to is an oar.

The two men had a difficulty, and Symondson told Deputy District Attorney Menton that Tillsion tried to hit him with the oar. Later there was a shot fired, Symondson says that he heard a bullet. No one saw anyone fire a shot at Symondson, and what ever shooting there was has nothing to do with the charge brought here against Tillsion, who was fined for using firearms within the city limits of Newport Beach.

SAYS AUTO DRIVER SMASHES BUILDING

S. A. Clark, owner of a garage and shop on West Fifth street, found his shop caved in on one side yesterday afternoon, as the result of a collision with an automobile. The automobile was driven by a woman, who was trying to turn around in the street. She backed into the building and caved in the side of it. Clark estimates the damage at $150. A neighbor got the number of the machine, and this afternoon Clark reported to the district attorney's office that the car is registered in the name of Norman F. Barber, 4342 South Flower street, Los Angeles.

MOUNTAIN LION WOUNDED RUNS AT HUNTER

Teddy Roosevelt Sensations Enjoyed By Arthur Hausauer of Santa Ana

Teddy Roosevelt, faced by charging rhinoceros or infuriated elephants in the wilds of Africa, had nothing on Arthur Hausauer of 612 East Sixth street when it comes to thrills and sensations. Hausauer's experience occurred in Crow Springs canyon Sunday morning, and the animal that charged him was a wounded mountain lion.

Hausauer left J. C. Joplin's ranch, where he is employed, with some other deer hunters. He was walking along the bank of a wash in the bottom of the canyon when he spied a mountain lion running along the bottom of the wash quartering from him. Hausauer fired, and the first shot hit the lion.

Snarling and snapping, jumping into the air four or five feet, the varmint turned and charged straight at Hausauer, who was not over forty-five yards away. Roosevelt never fired shots any faster in his life than Hausauer had them flying. One of the bullets got the lion squarely in the chest, and the charge was over. Altogether the lion was hit three times. One bullet, probably the first, went in at the back of the left shoulder. Another broke a hip and the last went in at the base of the neck.

The lion was a female about two years old, fat and sleek. She weighed sixty-five pounds and measured five feet six inches long. In her stomach was found bunches of deer hair and the claws of a skunk.

Hunters in the Bell canyon, Long Oak and Crow Springs section found no bucks. William Waller of Trabuco got a buck in the Christianitis, and A. B. Carle of San Juan Capistrano brought in a buck from the same section.

W. S. S.

Among Orange county people who registered at Murietta Hot Springs the latter part of last week were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cotant, Mrs. Mary Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Dean, C. F. Tilden, Santa Ana; Mrs. R. Zuckerman, Anaheim; Mrs. E. Bartling, Mrs. Lizzie Kroener, Orange; William Dryer, Fullerton.

To prevent her car running over a little child crossing Fourth street at Sycamore Saturday, Mrs. Clarence Alves of Balboa turned her car into one driven by Edward Coats of this city. The cars were going in opposite directions but neither machine sustained any serious damage.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 3.—Three gold stars were set in the service flag of Robert Gorman and wife of Los Angeles today.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Chicago's "Little Italy" was seething again today over two shootings near "Death Corner."

The Right Choice Of a Bank

THE banking methods of today are based upon the principles recognized and applied in the operation of the Federal Reserve System.

You owe it to yourself to transact your banking business with a bank which is a member of this system, for that bank, by reason of such membership, is in position to extend to your account banking service in all that the term means, and to a degree unattainable elsewhere.

THE CASUALTY LISTS

How do you read the casualty lists?

Perhaps you start with the slightly wounded and read up to the deeper tragedies, where you glance gingerly as on dangerous ground, hoping and full of faith that none of the names there will bring you face to face with a supreme sacrifice made by one close and dear to you.

When the list has been read without any start of recognition you feel happy—but only for a second, because you know that every name represents a splendid American who has given his blood for you here at home.

Are you worthy of their sacrifice?

You are not worthy if you do not give the best that is in you in backing them up. Those boys were asked to stop the German drive on Paris. They did it and in addition drove the Huns toward the Rhine beyond their starting point.

You are asked to more than double your last Liberty Loan investment, because the government needs at least six billion dollars. Thinking of that that daily casualty list, can you live with yourself if you put down one cent less than you can afford to invest when the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign begins September 28? Plan to make your investment on the first day. Go over the top with the first wave—not the last.

SENTIMENT VERSUS SENSE

The gradual conversion of congress to agreement with the war department's plans for the enlistment of men 18, 19 and 20 years old is in line with general public opinion. Congressmen, like their intelligent constituents, have come to feel that the military experts, who are almost unanimous on this matter, know what they are about, and had better have their way.

It came with a shock at first, this idea of sending "boys" under age to the firing line. The nation had almost forgotten that it was almost entirely by such lads that our Civil war was fought and won, as any gray-haired veteran can testify.

The fact is, of course, that the lads between 18 and 21 are not boys at all, in physique and mentality, but men; and though lacking perhaps the toughness and endurance of men a few years older, they amply compensate for that by their greater elasticity, their powers of recuperation, their alertness and adaptability.

There may be some question as to the 18-year-olds. They, however, will mostly be 19 before they see active service. As for the next two classes, they are regarded as the best military material in the world. They are far more available, too, because so few of them have family, business or social ties that interfere with their serving in the army wholeheartedly and without disturbance of their community life.

It is sentiment rather than sense that opposed their enlistment. Sense wins.

VOLNEY, NAPOLEON AND THE KAISER

When Senator Lewis of Illinois was in Paris the other day, on government business, he was given an official reception at the Cafe Volney, named for the French philosopher, author of "The Ruins, or Meditation on the Revolutions of Empires."

Referring to this fact in his Washington Times, Arthur Brisbane points out that "Volney is the philosopher who was summoned to the presence of the great Napoleon. The latter, being unable to answer the arguments of the philosopher, kicked him in the stomach in true Napoleonic fashion, and Volney was carried away seriously injured—which didn't change the fact that he had the better of the argument with Napoleon."

"You wish, as you read the following invocation with which Volney begins his work, that you might have the pleasure of reading it aloud to the kaiser, the world's champion maker of ruins."

INVOCATION

Hail, solitary ruins, Holy Sepulchers and silent walls! You I invoke. To you I address my prayer. While your aspect averts, with secret terror, the vulgar regard, it excites in my heart the charm of delicious sentiments—sublime contemplations.

What useful lessons; what affecting and profound reflections you suggest to him who knows how to consult you!

When the whole earth, in chains and silence, bowed the neck before its tyrants, you had already proclaimed the truths which they abhor; and confounding the dust of the King with that of the meanest slave, had announced to man the sacred dogma of equality.

Within your pale, in solitary adoration of liberty, I saw her genius arise from the mansions of the dead; not such as she is painted by the impassioned multitude, armed with fire and sword, but under the august aspect of Justice, poised in her hand the sacred balance wherein are weighed the actions of men at the gates of eternity!

O, Tombs! What virtues are yours! You appall the tyrant's heart, and poison with secret alarm his impious joys. He flies, with coward step, your incorruptible aspect, and erects afar his throne of insolence.

You punish the powerful oppressor; you wrest from avarice and extortion their ill-gotten gold; and you avenge the feeble whom they have despoiled; you compensate the miseries of the poor by the anxieties of the rich; you console the wretched by opening to him a last asylum from distress; and you give to the soul that just equipoise of strength and sensibility which constitutes wisdom—the true science of life.

Aware that all must return to you, the wise man loadeth not himself with the burdens of grandeur and of useless wealth; he restrains his desires within the limits of justice; yet knowing that he must follow his destined course of life, he fills with employment all its hours, and enjoys the comforts that fortune has allotted him.

You thus impose on the impetuous sallies of cupidity a salutary rein! You calm the feverish ardor or enjoyments which disturb the senses; you free the soul from the fatiguing conflict of the passions; elevate it above the paltry interests which torment with crowd; and surveying, from your commanding position, the expanse of ages and nations, the mind is only accessible to the great affections—to the solid ideas of virtue and of glory.

Ah! When the dream of life is over! What then will avail all its agitations, if not one trace of utility remains behind?

O Ruins! To your school I will return! I will seek again the calm of your solitudes; and there, far from the afflicting spectacle of the passions, I will cherish in remembrance the love of man. I will employ myself on the means of effecting good for him and build my own happiness on the promotion of his.

—C. F. VOLNEY.

Mr. McAdoo wants his railroad subordinates to be courteous to the traveling public. At the same time, he doesn't mind informing that public that he would much rather have it stay at home and let the roads haul freight.

Don't begrudge a hard-working man his vacation, just because it's war time. Even soldiers have their resting periods.

The Germans shouldn't have any great difficulty in retreating along that Picardy front. They've done it all before.

England's grain crop is said to be the biggest in fifty years. And the women have raised and reaped it.

After all, we don't much mind prices going up as long as the Allies are going ahead. It's worth it. And old General High Cost o' Living will get his licking about the same time the kaiser "gets his'n".

Sure, we're willing to wear shoddy and let the soldiers have pure wool!

The misguided suffragists who were sentenced to fifteen days' imprisonment for unseemly demonstrations in Washington were let off with six days. They must have been awful mad at such curtailment of their beloved martyrdom.

The "liberated" Poles are dying of hunger, because their German liberators have taken all their food. "Freedom," to Prussia, means freedom to die for Prussia.

American wounded are to be brought to this country for treatment in American hospitals. It's the proper thing; but we hope they won't be brought in hospital ships marked with the Red Cross. That cross is too good a target for the heathen Huns.

Current Comment

Huntington Beach News: The heavy artillery of the Taxpayers' League from all over the county was moved into the Second district in order to defeat the incumbent, T. B. Talbert, who is chairman of the board, and whom the League officials asked to resign his office about two years ago. It was a case of sink or swim with this organization, as, if Mr. Talbert was re-elected, the League would be discredited. Therefore he must be defeated, and the big fight was directed from behind the scenes by S. J. Jackman, president of the League, and never did lieutenants work harder than those being directed by Field Marshal Jackman.

Most of the big shells fired by the League landed in the Garden Grove district, and the harmony of that peaceful community was badly wrecked for the time being.

Placentia Courier: The two papers in Downey, the Eagle and Champion, have consolidated, both passing under the management of Ed Van Matre. We are glad to note it, for Downey can support one good paper, and a good, strong paper can do much for Downey. Also, Van is able to run that kind of a paper.

Huntington Beach News: One of the most popular candidates in Huntington Beach was Deputy County Clerk Joseph M. Backs, who beat his opponent here by a vote of two and one-half to one. Another solar plexus blow delivered to the Taxpayers' League was the triumphant election of County Treasurer J. C. Joplin, whose integrity was attacked at the time the officers asked T. B. Talbert to resign. The two arch offenders in the county "ring," according to the League, were Mr. Talbert and Mr. Joplin, and the voters of the county have strongly repudiated the statements made by Mr. Jackman against these honorable men.

Anaheim Gazette: When Billy Wallop went to vote on Tuesday he was handed a Republican ballot, he having been registered by mistake as affiliating with that party. Billy is one of the local Democratic warhorses, and entered a polite protest to being given a Republican ballot. His protest was unavailing, and he voted his first Republican ticket. He wrote in the name of Woolwine for governor, which gave the Los Angeles man one vote for the Republican nomination. Billy says he will vote the straight Democratic ticket at the November election.

Anaheim Gazette: Several of the election boards in Anaheim were dominated by women officials Tuesday. They buckled down like veterans, but when it came to totaling the vote they insisted on adding up the vote cast for each candidate and posting it as the total. In precinct No. 4, for instance, the registration was 225, but the posted sheet shows 1192 votes cast.

Brea Progress: There was considerable disappointment (in the election) with many, and especially with the Progress, in the number of votes the Taxpayers' League was able to roll up. This paper, as well as a number of candidates, had been led to believe that the League was going to show great strength in the contest and now there is more than one wondering if the organization is out of harmony or if the voting strength is a nightmare or a false alarm.

3 COUNTY BOYS IN MERCHANT MARINE

John Holt Here to Advise Local Men Interested In Service

"If a man wants to get in work, this is the service in which he can make good," said Holt, "and my advice for young men who are looking for a good future is to join this service. After the war is over there is going to be a big demand for men to take the high places on the merchant ships, and the man who gets the training now is the man who is going to have the best chance later.

"It is more of a civilian work and while enlistment is for the period of the war, the men sign up only for one trip on any vessel to which they may be assigned. The shipping board has declared that this is one of the most important branches and many men are needed. The wages are the best. Opportunity to visit the foreign countries and see the world are the very best. The service is no place, however, for a man who does not want to work until such a time as he can get some of the higher commissions—and promotions are rapid."

"The Merchant Marine service is the best paid and the opportunities for present and after-war service are the best," is the opinion of John Holt, who arrived here yesterday upon a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Holt, 1815 West Third street.

Holt was one of 220 men who have just completed the course for merchant marine service, and he is home on a twenty-day furlough, which is given all men after their graduation. John Gowdy and Wm. Crawford, both of Tustin, also graduated. Crawford came home on a visit and Gowdy has been assigned to a ship sent to a foreign land for a cargo of sugar.

Holt will be at the Mater drug store off and on, where he will be delighted to give anyone from this vicinity all information he can on the service or anyone may call at his home.

The Girls' War Service League was hostess Sunday evening at a three-course supper given in the Red Cross luncheon room, their guests being the members of the Coast Artillery Band from Fort McArthur and the speakers and vocalists who took part in the big War Savings Stamp rally, held Sunday night in Birch Park.

Covers were laid for forty-two guests, the tables being centered with crystal vases filled with delicately tinted asters and baby's breath, while clusters of magnificent dahlias, white Maman Cochet roses and bright golden glow formed the room decorations.

Besides the president, Miss Gertrude Montgomery, and the vice-president, Miss Bess Wood, other members of the League who assisted in planning and serving were Misses Lucille Brothers, Gladys Burns, Helen Reinhaus, Irma Reinhaus, Lydia Fisher, Alberta Black, Louise Grubb, Estelle Nisson, Louise Montgomery, Ramona Clevenger, Amy Larsen, Gladys Carson, Waive Kingley, Eleanor Sturgeon, Gailene Finley, Louise Tubbs, Mary Collins, Elizabeth Paine and Margaret Robertson.

The girls are indebted to the Red Cross dining room committee for the use of the luncheon room and equipment and to Fred Taylor, who so generously donated the ice cream for the occasion.

Troth to Ernest Barger
Sunday Evening

Spurgeon Memorial church was the scene of a beautiful wedding service on Sunday evening with Rev. A. T. O'Rear, the pastor, officiating, when Miss Fredda Moesser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moesser, became the bride of Ernest Barger, all residents of Santa Ana.

The chancel was decorated with a profusion of greenery with feathery bamboo background, the French color scheme prevailing in the mass of flowers clustered in tall vases and intertwined among the foliage, all presenting a most pleasing effect.

Miss Bessie Lewis and Mrs. W. W. Anderson were assisting in arranging the beautiful decorative scheme by the Philothea class of the Spurgeon Memorial Church, of which Miss Moesser is a member.

The ceremony was preceded by a musical program, delightfully rendered and consisted of a chorus in charge of Mrs. Ella Campau. The singers were Misses Lucille Brothers, Minnie Phillips, Edith Cornell, Mary Henderson, Lila Rithner, Ruth Armstrong, Louise Montgomery, and Mmes. A. M. Koepsel, Hazel Sauers, Nat Jeff, Larue Mayer, Alma Babbitt, James Nuckells, Nora Coleman, Imogene Rieff, and Amy Billingsley. Harry Garstang presided at the pipe organ.

An orchestra consisting of Mrs. Jay McCuiston, Mrs. Theo. Watry, Miss Helen Crozier; W. B. Mackey, a vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Bishop, "I Love You Truly," a solo, Hazel Rowley Sauers, "At Dawning," solo, G. Haydon Jones, "Because," a male quartet, Lloyd Babbitt, Alex Garraway, Walter Vieira, James Nuckells sang "The Rose," added to the pleasure of the occasion.

The bride party with the matron of honor, Mrs. Marie Thomas Schlack and Royal Barger, brother of the groom, as best man, and Misses Fannie Smart, Mildred Cook, Gailene Finley, Mabelle Smith, bridesmaids, the ring bearer, little Miss Velma Bishop, flower girl, Miss Estelle Schlesinger, followed by the bride and groom, entered the church as the group softly sang the wedding chorus. The bridesmaids were dressed in white and carried bouquets of pink roses.

The bride was charming in a dainty dress of pale pink crepe with silver lace trimmed shower veil, and carrying a bouquet of delicate fleur-de-lis and maidenhair fern and she advanced where the groom to the altar, where the impressive marriage service was read.

At the conclusion of the service, the two brides, Masters Harold Vieira and Harold Matthews, led the march from the church, the bride pair remaining to receive the congratulations of friends. A flashlight picture was taken of the entire party.

Miss Moesser is so widely known and dearly beloved by scores of friends that testified their regard with many beautiful wedding presents, that it would be impossible to mention but a few of these. One, a lot on West Fourth street, where Mr. and Mrs. Barger expect to build their future home, was a gift from the bride's parents, another highly prized gift was a chest of silver from her uncle, John Avas; also a purse of gold and many beautiful gifts of linen, china, cut glass and ornaments.

When going away on her wedding trip of a few days, Mrs. Barger wore an Alice blue chiffon taffeta dress, white hat, shoes and gloves. The best wishes of many go with the happy couple.

Interesting Guests

Mr. and Mrs. John Flood and daughter, Miss Katherine, R. A. Flood of Newton, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haggerty of Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Shipp of Los Angeles, were week-end guests at the A. D. Bishop home.

FIRE DON'TS AS MARVEL FLIGHT WOMEN'S ARMY IS COMPLETED BY MARTIN GUN MACHINE NOT NEEDED TO HARVEST CROP

Walnut Growers Find That Plenty Local Help Is Available

A wonderful test of the value of the big new warplane designed and built by Glenn L. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Martin of Santa Ana, at Cleveland, O., was made yesterday when the machine flew from Cleveland, O., to Dayton, O., a distance of 200 miles. The machine was scheduled to make this trip that it might be turned over to the American aeroplane authorities at the big flying field at Dayton.

News that the machine had flown to Dayton came in a telegram received this morning by Mrs. Martin from her son. The wire said that the machine made a perfect flight, flew 200 miles in two hours, carrying four men, tools and two suit cases.

A Cleveland newspaper, following the first flight of the new giant warplane, described it as "the most formidable fighting plane ever constructed, and the first battleplane of all-American design."

The Cleveland papers say that the plane will be known to the Allies as the Martin gun machine, that "the engineering accomplishment is noteworthy in view of the fact that the ship is a radically new type," that "it is the largest advanced type of fighting machine ever built, having a wing spread of nearly seventy-five feet."

The Cleveland paper gives a detailed description of some of the new engineering features found in the plane. Completely equipped for battle the machine carries only six pounds for each horsepower, and seven pounds for each square foot of supporting surface.

Quoting Glenn Martin, the Cleveland paper says: "The machine has given us confidence that it will win the niche among America's accomplishments in the war." Further, the clipping received here says: "Martin is particularly proud of the ability of his assistant, Lawrence D. Bell." Many Santa Anans will remember Bell as among the first of his employees after Martin began building aeroplanes.

The big warplane was built in a factory that on May 1 had its opening, which on July 1 had 180 employees and which on August 1 had 185 employees.

FIRE DON'TS AS MARVEL FLIGHT WOMEN'S ARMY IS COMPLETED BY MARTIN GUN MACHINE NOT NEEDED TO HARVEST CROP

Walnut Growers Find That Plenty Local Help Is Available

With plenty of labor here to handle the walnut crop, the Santa Ana Walnut Growers' Association Saturday voted not to accept the offer of the Women's Land Army to assist in the work of gathering the crop. The conditions imposed for employment of the land army forces had something to do with the decision. The employer has to provide sanitary accommodations, sleeping rooms where the women would not have to sleep more than two in a room, full cooking equipment, transportation from one grove to another and guarantee $2.50 per day of eight hours, with a margin provided at $65 per month for every ten or more women.

The former members of the Santa Ana Valley Walnut Growers' Association were called together at the city hall Saturday afternoon for the purpose of taking action authorizing the directors to dissolve the old association. Such authority was given there being more than a quorum present. The attendance was large. M. Nisson, president of the old organization, presiding. Following the transaction of business in connection with the old institution, Harry Lewis, president of the Santa Ana Walnut Growers' Association, took the chair. With the passing of the original association, goes one of the oldest walnut associations in the state. The only change in the organization, however, is the name, in which the word "valley" is dropped. The new association will carry on the work and one of its first steps was the arrangement for the building of the fine walnut packing house which is now nearly completed on the Santa Fe lease on East Fourth street.

The matter of a uniform schedule for gathering the crop this year was discussed and it was the sentiment of the meeting that $1.25 per ton should rule for picking and shelling. This is equivalent to 75c per sewed barley sack. It is a little advance over former prices, and it was the general opinion that active workers could make twice as much this season as last, because of the fact that the nuts are in better condition. They are dropping freer of the hulls than they did last year.

Discussed Walnut Worms

Ralph Smith, formerly of the University of California, and now employed by the California Walnut Growers' Association in looking after the aphids, worms and walnut diseases with headquarters at Santa Barbara, was present and discussed with the members certain phases of his work.

Six years ago he went to Italy and France to investigate the situation there with reference to worms. In some districts he found a great many worms, similar to the apple worm but it could not be determined that they were the same nor that they passed from the apple to the walnut tree.

In California similar conditions obtain—the worm is found in some sections and in others it is absent. Among the places in Southern California where the worms have not been found are La Habra and Puente districts. They seem to be more prevalent in the immediate vicinity of Santa Ana and Tustin. He has been unable to develop anything that will eradicate the worms, but will continue with experiments until something is found or the finding of a remedy given up as hopeless.

Smith advised that growers be careful in handling sacks, to see that they are not passed from a grove infected with the worms to one that is not. The association will take special pains against carrying the worms in this way and Smith and County Horticultural Commissioner Earl Morris will experiment with sacks having worms in them to see what process of fumigation will be best to eliminate them from the sacks. Smith advised the burning of all refuse around walnut trays and places where the nuts are handled. It also was suggested that culls left in the groves should be burned.

The speaker advised that all growers wrap tree trunks with burlap at once. The burlap will catch many of the worms and can be burned, thus destroying the worms and eggs. It is believed this will have a tendency to check their spreading.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Just 100 sugar beet mills in the United States are now operating or are ready to turn out sugar to furnish energy to our soldiers, according to advices received here from the United States Department of Agriculture.

Sixteen of the mills, with capacities ranging from a few hundred tons to 3000 tons each 24 hours, were built in 1917 to help handle the 1918 crop. Seventeen mills were built in 1916 in these states: Wyoming, Idaho, Nebraska, Utah, Oregon, Colorado, Montana, Iowa, California and Washington.

California had the first sugar beet mill in the United States. This was built in 1870.

RENOVED MAN MAY VISIT THIS SECTION

L. T. Cooper, Noted Philanthropist Gives Large Part of Income to Charity

Not in recent years, perhaps, has the coming of any public character aroused such widespread interest as has the proposed visit to San Francisco and other western cities of L. T. Cooper, the Millionaire Philanthropist.

Mr. Cooper is described as out of America's foremost leaders of advanced thought, and sprang into fame and fortune through his new health theories based on what is known as the Tanlac treatment. He never ceases to surprise you with the infinite variety of his knowledge, and its absolute correctness and thoroughness. In several of the larger cities he has done a great deal of relief work among the poor.

Mr. Cooper is a firm believer in practical philanthropy and his relief work is familiar to charity workers over the entire country. His Southern representative while in Houston, Texas, recently distributed, under the personal direction of leading charity workers, one thousand dresses of excellent quality to poor women and children. In San Antonio, the following week he donated another thousand dresses to the poor of that city, and a few days later four hundred of his garments were provided by him for the poor women and children of Galveston. Ladies prominent in social life and many prominent citizens of these places assisted and co-operated with Mr. Cooper's representative in this worthy cause.

Gives 50,000 Loaves of Bread

Similar service was also performed by Mr. Cooper in Memphis, Birmingham, Atlanta, Little Rock, Shreveport, Vicksburg, Jackson, Nashville, Knoxville, Chattanooga, Macon, Savannah, Montgomery, Mobile and Augusta, and his establishment of the famous free bread line at Louisville where he distributed 50,000 loaves of bread absolutely free and without question to those in want, proved a revelation to charity workers there.

In fact, in practically every city Mr. Cooper has visited he has always shown his great sympathy for the poor and unfortunate by performing some unique act of charity.

Mr. Cooper contends that nine-tenths of the diseases and ill health of the present day American is due to faulty digestion and improper assimilation of the food, which finally produces a stuffed up condition of the vital organs.

It has been said that Tanlac, his celebrated medicine which is now accomplishing such remarkable results throughout the country, not only quickly overcomes all catarrhal inflammations of the mucous membrane, but acts directly in the correction of stomach, liver, kidney and intestinal disorders.

Tanlac as has been so convincingly proven by the thousands upon thousands who have endorsed it, is also a reconstructive tonic of great power, and has been known to entirely relieve the most obstinate cases of rheumatism and blood disorders in a very short time.

Tanlac Sales Phenomenal

It is, indeed, doubtful if anything ever placed on the market in the way of a medicine has sprung into such popular favor in so short a time. People everywhere have been quick to recognize its wonderful merit. The demand for it has been nothing short of phenomenal.

In Seattle, Washington, over 50,000 bottles were sold and distributed by jobber and retailer in eight weeks time, which established a new record there, and is unprecedented in the history of the drug business. In Denver over 65,000 bottles were sold in six months, in Ft. Worth, Texas, 122,204 bottles were sold in twelve months time, in Atlanta, Georgia, over 166,000 bottles were sold in twelve months time, in Dallas, Tex., 120,000 bottles were sold in twelve months' time, in Knoxville, Tenn., the Kuhlman-Chambliss Co. sold and distributed 48,326 bottles in nine months, in Louisville, Ky., the Taylor-Isaacs Company, who operate eight retail stores in that city sold 32,000 bottles in less than ninety days. In fact everywhere Tanlac has been introduced its sale has likewise been phenomenal and the demand for it is continually increasing. A total of more than two and a half million bottles of the medicine has been sold through the Atlanta office alone during the past eighteen months, and it is without doubt the most widely talked of medicine today.

When asked to explain this record breaking demand, Mr. G. F. Willis, International Distributor of Tanlac said: "There can be only one possible explanation, and it can be told in one word, merit." That tells the whole story. No preparation no matter how extensively advertised, can possibly meet with such phenomenal success unless it possesses extraordinary curative power.

Thousands upon thousands are testifying daily that they have been relieved of disease after years of suffering by its use.

Tanlac is sold in Santa Ana by Rowley-Drug Co., in Fullerton by G. W. Finch, in La Habra by R. H. Hilbert, in Huntington Beach by Rigdon's Pharmacy, in Orange by Dittmer's Pharmacy, in Anaheim by Placencia by A. J. Robinson, and in Tustin by Tustin Pharmacy.—Advertisement.

THIN PEOPLE NEED BITRO-PHOSPHATE

How It Increases Weight, Strength and Nerve Force In Two Weeks' Time In Many Instances

"Take plain bitro-phosphate" is the advice of physicians to thin, delicate, nervous people who lack vim, energy and nerve force, and there seems to be ample proof of the efficacy of this preparation to warrant the recommendation. Moreover, if we judge from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more

The value of baking powder is based on its leavening strength. You can't judge it by the size of the can—or by the amount you get for your money. You must estimate it by the amount of baking powder used in each baking and the results you get.

is the greatest value ever offered in Baking Powder—it has greater raising "force"—it goes further than most of the other brands. You use only a rounded or heaping teaspoonful where others call for two teaspoonfuls or more.

But Baking Powder is not all you'll save when using Calumet. You save baking materials. Calumet never fails. The last level teaspoonful is as powerful as the first. Calumet is perfectly manufactured—keeps perfectly—and is moderate in price.

You save when you buy it—You save when you use it. One trial will satisfy you of these facts—and demonstrate beyond doubt that "Calumet spells economy."

Your grocer sells it on a guarantee of money back if you are not pleased with results. Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.

School Opens Sept. 30; Announcement Made of Registration and Courses

The High School and Junior College Manual for the coming school year is just off the press. The publication is larger than ever, containing 72 pages of information about the work of these institutions, which enrolled over a thousand students last year.

Registration
Announcement is made that school will begin as originally planned, on the last Monday in September, which is the 30th. Registration will take place the week before the opening of school, as follows:

First year students, Tuesday, Sept. 24th.
Second year students, Wednesday, Sept. 25th.

Third year students, Thursday, Fourth year students, Friday.
Post-graduate students, Friday.

Registration for the Junior College will be from Sept. 23rd to the 25th. The method of registration will be similar to that used last year. Students will be allowed to obtain their locker keys when they register, in order that they may have a place to keep their books the first day of school.

In the introduction to the Manual, Principal Hammond says that many changes will be noted in the scope and content of the courses of study offered. The study of German has been entirely eliminated, and History, English, and the Courses in Music, have been revised for the purpose of weeding out all traces of German propaganda. Several new text books on democracy and good citizenship have been introduced in the English courses to inspire every student with a greater love for country, liberty and humanity.

Practical Courses
The school courses in technical subjects, such as Machine, and Auto Shop, Forging, Home Economics, will be made more practical. Rapid courses in commercial branches will be extended, and new equipment will be added to the Commercial Department. Ten new Master Model Stenotype machines have been purchased, and all typewriters are being overhauled.

Courses in Electricity, Library Science, and a course called "Normal Review," in which are given the elements of arithmetic, grammar and geography, are offered for the first time. A large enrollment in the French classes is expected since the subject is now open to first year students. A four-year course in French may now be obtained. Arrangements have been made to handle larger classes in mathematics and science. It has been discovered that these subjects are essential for rapid advancement in most branches of military service.

Military Training
Every boy will be required to take military training, unless excused on account of physical disability. It is recommended that every boy purchase the regulation uniform which has been adopted by the Board of Education. It consists of a felt hat, shirt, pants and leggings, all of khaki color (the darker shade), and all to be of cotton cloth except the hat. The reason for this is to save the wool for the army. Coats of the same material may be purchased if the student so desires, but they are not required. Any other coat or sweater may be worn with the rest of the uniform; all coats are removed when the boys are drilling. Leather leggings will not be allowed, since the government requires all available leather. The cost of a uniform, including coat, ranges from $10.50 to about $12.50, according to the quality of the cloth. The suits are to be made according to the military style as required by state law, and as used in other high schools that have cadet companies. Boys will be permitted to buy an extra shirt and pair of pants for a change when one suit is being cleaned, if they so desire. Uniforms are to be worn every day on which military training is given.

War Work Organized
War Service Work will have a definite place on the program this year. Classes will be formed in Knitting, Sewing, Cooking, Canning and Conservation of Food, Typewriting for War Work, Poster Making, Salvage and Shop Work, such as making boxes, tables, chairs, furniture, crutches and splints for Red Cross work. Every student will enroll for some kind of war work.

Bible Study
Provision is made this year for allowing credit toward graduation for Bible study done outside of school. Three courses are suggested, each of which earns one-fourth of a credit. These may be taken up in Sunday schools, or in Y. M. C. A. clubs. The Manual carefully defines the various technical terms of school and college work, and aims to give information which will be intelligible and valuable to both parents and students. One page is devoted to information for girls who plan to enter schools of nursing.

Junior College
Notwithstanding the fact that most boys of college age will enroll, it is possible, in colleges that have the Student Army Training Corps, the Junior College expects a normal enrollment the coming year. Three instructors, all of whom have advanced degrees in the subjects they are going to teach, have been added to the faculty. Attention is called to the fact that anybody, of no matter what age, may enroll in the Junior College Courses, taking as few or as many as may be desired. Courses will be given in Modern European History, Botany, Advanced Chemistry, French, Spanish, English, Mathematics, Economics, Psychology, Sociology, Logic, Library Science, and Physical Education.

There are two cuts in the book, one showing a general view of the buildings, and the other, two of the commercial rooms. On the back cover is printed the Honor Roll of 235 who are in the service of Uncle Sam. It is impossible to make this list accurate, and all who know of names omitted are requested to notify the principal in order that the list may be made complete. Copies of the Manual may be obtained at Sam Stein's, or at the Santa Ana Book Store, or they will be mailed upon application to the Principal. The school office is now open daily and parents and students who wish special information are invited to call. If it is not convenient to call by day, the Principal will gladly make an appointment for any evening at his home, with those so wishing.

DEPARTING SOLDIER GIVEN FAREWELL BY BERRYDALE CLUB

GARDEN GROVE, Aug. 31.—One of the most delightful functions of the season was a farewell party given by the Berrydale club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Nichols Thursday evening to Quinn Nichols on the eve of his departure to join the colors at Ft. Worth, Texas. The evening was spent with music and games and enjoyed by fifty neighbors and friends. An elaborate luncheon was served and the honoree was presented with a beautiful cake bearing his name, by Mrs. Dwight Magill. The club also presented him with a coin belt. He has been very anxious to enlist for overseas service, but heretofore has been rejected, and has devoted his time, energies and money in helping with the Red Cross, Liberty Bond and every other possible way to help promote "the soldier's welfare" work. He is one of nature's noblemen, and the well-wishes of a host of friends will follow him.

Mrs. Jess Nichols was hostess Friday afternoon to the Berrydale Community club. The time was spent sewing for the Red Cross. The hostess served a delicious collation, after which club adjourned to meet in two weeks.

Benefit Dance Next Friday
Pursuant to announcement made August 23, a Red Cross benefit dance will be held in the Kealher warehouse next Friday evening, September 6. The Anaheim orchestra will furnish music. The entire proceeds will be given to the Red Cross.

Mrs. O. O. Young expects to move to Whittier next week. She will be ready for the children to begin the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kent and children have moved to San Fernando to reside.

Mrs. A. J. Chaffee and daughters, Misses Mettie and Leila, visited Tuesday and Wednesday with the former's sister, Mrs. Helm, at Pasadena.

Mrs. Keller Coplin and children of Tombstone, Ariz., were visiting friends last week.

Mrs. T. E. Niles is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harvey, at San Dimas.

Mrs. R. C. Coats is reported slowly improving from her recent attack of heart trouble.

Mrs. Thomas of Tulare is a house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Reyburn.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meeker, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Scott went to Seal Beach Friday afternoon for a shore lunch and a dip in the surf.

Wants Overseas Service
Mrs. James Smith, living one mile west on Ocean avenue, has volunteered for overseas service in Christian Science work and left Tuesday for Washington, D. C. In her absence her 17-year-old daughter will be housekeeper for her father.

AMERICANS LIKE MOUNTAIN WAR AS PRACTICED IN ALSACE

Doughboys Become Mountaineers Quickly; Individual Skill Shows Plainly

BY FRANK J. TAYLOR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE AMERICANS IN ALSACE-LORRAINE, Aug. 4. (By mail).—American soldiers are becoming mountaineers of Alpine skill up in the heights of Alsace, where they are holding long stretches of the line. They measure the line in three ways. They measure as the crow flies, horizontally and vertically. As the crow flies the line across Alsace is comparatively short, with the horizontal twists north and south, east and west, it is longer, but when the vertical measurement is made up and down the mountain sides, his Alsatian line becomes enormous.

The doughboys become mountaineers with facility. They like fighting in the mountain peaks because it is individual and calls for ingenuity as well as courage. Some of the peaks on which they are opposing the Germans are over four thousand feet high. It is always cool and often cold up in the tree covered peaks. The lines run up and down these peaks and through forests so dense that only constant vigilance prevents ambush parties. The Americans have shown a peculiar adaptability to this warfare, which is nearer the type their forefathers waged in America than any other phase of the Great War.

You get to the American positions only after crossing high ridges along which ran the French-German boundary before the war. Then you drop abruptly down the German side of the ridges into Alsatian towns where the natives speak German as well as French, but deny that the former is German.

"It's not German, but Alsatian," they tell you firmly. "We don't speak boche." But the German you learned in school enables you to converse freely with them.

Signs in Three Tongues
The little Alsatian villages are clean and distinctly different from those over the line in France. Signs everywhere are written in both German and French, and in many places English has been added, out of courtesy to the Americans who go through to the lines up the mountain sides. Alsatian architecture adds attractive gables to the houses, which are more often surrounded by attractive yards and lawns than one finds in strictly French France.

Down in a little town on the road to Thann, a place buried between two towering ridges, you stop for lunch. The woman in charge speaks German and is not displeased at finding you speak it too, so long as you do not call it German and agree that the language is Alsatian, not German. She assures you that it is a bad day, a meatless day in France, and there is not much to eat. But you may have what they have, she says, if you will but wait. Then, while you anticipate eggs with little else, her German speaking assistants bring on four courses of meat, eggs, and Alsatian cake for dessert, more than you can find anywhere in France.

The Americans must eat well by us, for they will win Alsace back to France," she tells you, by way of explanation.

No Continuous Trench
The outstanding feature of the line in Alsace is the system of strongholds and observation posts which take the place of a continuous line for both sides. There is a line of barbed wire, which the Germans have attempted to electrify in some places running the length of Alsace, up and down, and through the pine and fir forests or through meadows colored with flowers. Streams and water-falls and all the means at the disposal of nature tend to hide the ravages of war.

In these mountains you at length find the Americans learning the means which both the Allies and the Germans have come to use to wage war here, and devising new ways of fighting. Around mountain peaks strongholds in woods or in rocks are built from which patrols operate usually in force through the woods. These patrols cross No Man's Land often without knowing it. It is comparatively easy to penetrate the line here, but it is harder to get back undetected, owing to density of vegetation.

It is an artillery warfare in this area. Big guns operate on strong points and villages from the rear, and little mountain artillery guns do the close range work. Machine guns play across from both sides, fairly well hidden in woods. Into this the Americans are introducing a more aggressive element, constant patrol raids.

Boys Would be Off
From observation posts the dough-

boy can see German positions for miles, and farther back can see German towns. On clear days he can see through the glasses every train that enters some of the cities, and can count the people on the streets. It puts one idea into the average doughboy's head. "Just let us loose and put some more Americans in here with us, and we'll take those towns," said one of them. "We could get them before the Germans know we're started." That is an optimistic idea, but it is not an idle boast.

Back in the towns and secluded spots less subject to bombardment you find still more doughboys, fresh from the states, eager to get into the mountainous trenches and hold a few feet of the long line now assigned to the Americans. The doughboy went in brigaded with the French at first, but were soon given their own sectors.

Farther down the line to the northwest in Lorraine, the problem is much the same, except that the mountains are less steep. Here it is hills the doughboys hold, and in numerous places the younger forests have been wiped out by artillery fire from both sides, leaving a definitely formed No Man's Land, which is usually well controlled by the Americans. As you approach the Vosges area the battle line again crosses back into France, and it is again a war of defence.

Americans in Alsace consider themselves lucky to be where they are. This is the best part of France we have seen," said one intelligent doughboy, and others echoed his sentiments. "No wonder the Germans want to steal the country. But we'll run them out in time if they'll just let us go."

FRIDAY, OCT. 4, WILL BE COUNTY DAY AT BEACH FESTIVAL

Additional Plans Made For Huntington Beach Event; High School Opens Oct. 7

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 3.—Last Friday afternoon a delegation of seventy-five boosters with sixteen autos journeyed to Downey with banners streaming, and took in the Community Fair at that place. While passing down the main street at Downey with tooting horns, a youngster in the crowd piped out, "Well, we knew you were coming."

The Downey people had a splendid exhibit, and our several committees had occasion to take many pointers relative to arrangement of exhibits, concessions, tents, etc.

Following is the placard in large letters displayed on each auto: "Second Annual Fall Fair, Huntington Beach, October 1-5."

The executive committee of the Fall Fair has decided to set aside the several days of the fair as follows: Tuesday, Entry day, and Newport Mesa day; Wednesday, judging and awarding of prizes; Thursday, War Savings and Peatland day; Friday, Liberty Loan and Orange County day; Saturday, Red Cross and Home Coming day.

An effort will be made to have the shell exhibit which is being prepared at Laguna Beach placed on display here during the fair.

Owing to the urgent need of help among the farmers in caring for their crops the High School Board at a recent meeting decided to postpone the opening of the fall term till October 7. Miss Francis Newland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Newland of this city, is now with the U. S. Nurse Corps in Porto Rico, she having enlisted in that service some weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bowman and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Elfeld left Saturday for a few days' outing at Deep Creek, near Little Bear Lake.

Judge C. W. Warner and wife and Mrs. Emily Sherman of Long Beach started today on a two-weeks' vacation in the Owens River country. Judge Leo Geopfer of Balboa will be in the justice's office Wednesdays for any business that may be wanted along that line, and may be had by phone at any other time if wanted.

Mrs. M. O. N. Evans of Inglewood is spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. Ann C. Cummings, 403 Tenth street.

Olive avenue, west of Eleventh street, is being overhauled and smoothed down by chiseling and leveling.

I. M. Clippinger, former postmaster, is now acting postman and delivering the city mail.

Fully 1500 people gathered at the beach Sunday afternoon to hear the speakers on the War Loan drive, and the submarine band.

All business houses in the city closed up Monday on account of Labor day.

W. R. Anderson's motorcycling will move this week to the room made vacant by the H. B. Hardware Company.

GIRL WEIGHMASTERS IN OXNARD SUGAR FACTORY

OXNARD, Sept. 3.—The Misses Cecilia and Dora Maulhardt are believed to be the first women to act as weighmasters in the beet sugar industry in the state, thus aiding in relieving the labor shortage. Owing to the eight-hour law it is necessary for the girls to work in two six-hour shifts for the twelve-hour day. Together they receive the same pay as one man for the full shift.

They are in charge of the beet receiving station, or dump, at Debo in the Oceanview district, and like the work, which consists of weighing the loads as they are brought in, and keeping records for the American Beet Sugar Company and the ranchers. The girls are sisters, daughters of a prominent pioneer family of the county, and Miss Cecilia is an accomplished violinist, having appeared in public on many occasions.

VALENCIAS STRONG IN EASTERN MARKET

Following is the weekly citrus review from the Los Angeles office of the Fruit World:

Values on Valencia continue strong with an even tone to the market. Offerings are readily absorbed, the sales in the auctions ranging from $5 to $10.10 average. The most attractive stock is bringing from $9.20 to $10.40 with choice fruit around $8.50 to $9.30. Less desirable stock is selling all the way from $7.70 down to $5, according to condition and sizes. F. O. B. quotations continue around $7.50.

Fresh deciduous fruits are commanding the close attention of the trade at this particular time, the offerings the past week being the largest in the history of the industry. The New York market alone reports auction sales of California and North-western deciduous fruits running close to 400 cars in a single day. California peaches, pears and plums are nearly finished, however, and grapes for a few late varieties, except hold undisputed control of the market. Orders for grapes from the East show an enormous demand, even the late Emperors, which are the last to ripen, coming on in October, and are already being booked on order sheets.

Crop estimators are busy and as a result guesses range all the way from 50 per cent to 75 per cent of a normal crop, based on crop figures of 1916-17. According to figures compiled by the Fruit World from information gathered from all producing sections of the state, the figures read 16,500 cars navel, 11,500 cars Valencia and 2000 cars miscellaneous varieties, making a total crop of oranges for the state of 30,000 cars based on the present load of 462 boxes to the car. The 1916-17 crop totaled 23,000 cars navel, 13,200 cars Valencia and 2004 cars miscellaneous, based on a load of 400 boxes to the car.

Sizes promise to run large. The season is advanced over the average season and as a result early shipments are looked for.

The market on lemons is easier all around. All markets are now well stocked up on lemons and activity in the situation is waning.

SCHOOL-TEACHER NEEDED BRAINS

"I never have had such a 'Godsend' come to me as when I took the first dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I was afraid I would have to give up my school because of severe stomach, liver and bowel trouble which caused such a pressure of gas that I could not use my brain at times, and my heart would palpitate awfully. Since taking a treatment of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy a year ago, all this has disappeared." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

WOMEN FIGHTING IN HUN ARMY SAYS ANAHEIM SOLDIER

Son of Harry Whitaker Tells of Women Taken As Prisoners

Press dispatches announced some days ago that General Ludendorff had publicly stated that before Germany would yield in the war every able-bodied woman in the empire would be put in the ranks. It appears that the Kaiser has already resorted to this method of recruiting his decimated ranks. J. H. Whitaker received a letter Tuesday from his son, Gerald, in which he states that in a German machine gun company recently captured by Americans, seventeen women in soldiers' uniform were found among the prisoners. Two women were also found among the German dead, killed in the fight. Ludendorff, it seems, is making his promise good.

Gerald Whitaker is with the American army in the Toul sector, east of Verdun.

Scorified Melilotus Seed

Through the scorifying process our Melilotus has been so thoroughly cleansed that the Berkeley test shows only one-third of one per cent inert matter. Think of it. A purity test of 99.42 and a germination of 98.50. Good Melilotus often shows only a germination of 80 per cent—but think of the difference between 80 per cent and 98.50.

When you spend good money—insist on getting good seed. Melilotus is endorsed by the Government as the best wartime cover crop. Plant Melilotus and feed your barley and bean straw.
